In 122 Days on Costa del Doorstep, author Richard Hemming embarks on an epic adventure to walk the entire 860-mile coastline of Spain, from the Pyrenees to Gibraltar. Over the course of 122 days, he encounters a diverse cast of characters, from friendly locals to eccentric fellow travelers, and experiences the country's rich history and culture firsthand.

Hemming's journey takes him through some of Spain's most stunning landscapes, from the rugged cliffs of the Basque Country to the sun-drenched beaches of the Mediterranean Sea. He also explores the country's vibrant cities, from Barcelona to Seville, and visits ancient ruins and medieval castles. Along the way, he learns about Spain's complex history, from the Reconquista to the Spanish Civil War, and gains a deep appreciation for the country's unique culture and traditions.

122 Days on Costa del Doorstep is a captivating travel memoir that will appeal to anyone who loves adventure, travel, and Spain. Hemming's writing is engaging and informative, and his journey is both inspiring and thought-provoking.
