The Six Senses of Card Magic

According to Richard Turner, there are six essential senses that every card magician must master:

1. Sight - The ability to see the cards and the hands of your spectators.
2. Touch - The ability to feel the cards and the hands of your spectators.
3. Hearing - The ability to hear the sound of the cards and the hands of your spectators.
4. Smell - The ability to smell the cards and the hands of your spectators.
5. Taste - The ability to taste the cards and the hands of your spectators.
6. Intuition - The ability to sense the thoughts and emotions of your spectators.

By mastering these six senses, you can become a truly amazing card magician.
