At the heart of the story is Amy Gumm, a 16-year-old girl who finds herself transported to Oz. However, unlike Dorothy, the wide-eyed and innocent girl from Kansas, Amy is a fierce and determined heroine with a mission: to kill Dorothy Gale.

Amy's quest is driven by a dark secret that connects her to the Wicked Witch of the West, the feared and powerful adversary of Dorothy. Determined to seek revenge for past wrongs, Amy embarks on a perilous adventure to find Dorothy and end her reign of terror once and for all.

As Amy delves deeper into Oz, she encounters a colorful cast of characters, both familiar and new. The Cowardly Lion, the Tin Man, and the Scarecrow make appearances, but their roles are far from what readers might expect. Oz is a land transformed, where good and evil blur, and the familiar becomes treacherous.

"Dorothy Must Die" is not just another retelling of the classic tale. Danielle Paige has crafted a fresh and captivating story that stands on its own. Her writing is sharp, witty, and immersive, drawing readers into Amy's world with its vivid descriptions and heart-pounding action sequences.
