In his new book, Woulfe shares his hilarious and sometimes shocking stories about the stars, the scandals, and the behind-the-scenes drama of Tinseltown.

Michael Woulfe has worked on some of the biggest films of the past 30 years, including "The Godfather," "Apocalypse Now," and "Titanic." He's dressed some of the biggest stars in Hollywood, from Marlon Brando to Leonardo DiCaprio. And he's seen it all, from the glamorous red carpets to the seedy underbelly of the film industry.

In his new book, Hollywood Undercover, Woulfe shares his hilarious and sometimes shocking stories about the stars, the scandals, and the behind-the-scenes drama of Tinseltown. He writes about the time he had to dress a drunk Marlon Brando for a photo shoot, the time he was fired from a film because he refused to put a dress on a naked actress, and the time he was offered a bribe to fix an Oscar vote.

Woulfe's book is a funny and revealing look at the world of Hollywood. It's a must-read for anyone who loves movies, fashion, or celebrity gossip.
