In Love, Life and Elephants, Fuller tells the unforgettable story of her journey in Africa. Through her eyes, we witness the beauty and brutality of the continent, and we come to understand the complex and often heartbreaking lives of its people.

Fuller's journey begins in the bustling city of Nairobi, where she meets Edwin, a charismatic and enigmatic man who will become the love of her life. Together, they travel to the remote and dangerous regions of Kenya and Zimbabwe, where they encounter elephants, lions, and other magnificent creatures.

But their journey is not without its challenges. Edwin is a troubled man, haunted by the horrors he has witnessed, and Fuller must learn to accept him as he is. She also witnesses the devastating effects of war and poverty, and she must find her own way to cope with the suffering she sees.

Through it all, Fuller writes with honesty and compassion, giving us a rare glimpse into the heart of Africa and the human spirit. Her story is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, love and hope can prevail.

Praise for Love, Life and Elephants
