

Not Running: A Political Masterpiece by David Hare

Synopsis

In 2015, Britain is facing a crucial general election. The Labour Party, led by Helen Clark, is desperate for victory, and they believe they have found the perfect candidate to lead them: Stephen Bryce, a charismatic former Prime Minister.

Bryce is a brilliant orator and a master strategist. But he is also a deeply flawed man, haunted by his past and burdened by the weight of his ambition. As he navigates the treacherous waters of politics, Bryce must confront his own demons and the compromises he is willing to make in the pursuit of power.
