Edited by acclaimed crime writer David Roberts, this collection brings together 18 tales from some of Canada's finest authors, each exploring a different facet of Toronto's shadowy underworld. From seedy nightclubs and back alleys to elite boardrooms and hallowed halls, these stories shine a light on the hidden struggles, secrets, and sins that lurk beneath the surface of this cosmopolitan city.

Step into a world where ruthless criminals, desperate souls, and broken dreams collide in a gritty symphony of crime and noir.

In "The Fixer," by Catherine Hernandez, a young woman navigates the treacherous waters of the financial industry, discovering a web of corruption that threatens her own life.

Wayne Arthurson's "The Night Shift" delves into the underworld of a hospital, where a nurse becomes entangled in a dangerous game of murder and revenge.

Mark Leslie's "The Lucky One" follows a homeless Vietnam veteran haunted by the ghosts of his past as he seeks redemption in the city's forgotten corners.

Other notable contributors to this anthology include Ariadne Mignone, Jason Schneider, Alison Pick, and Kerry Clare. Each story is a standalone masterpiece that weaves a complex and compelling tapestry of the city's darkest corners.

"Toronto Noir" is not for the faint of heart.

It is a raw and unflinching exploration of the city's underbelly, a place where violence, corruption, and desperation intertwine in a gritty and unforgettable dance.

But it is also a testament to the resilience and spirit of those who live and work in Toronto, a city where hope and darkness exist side by side.

If you're drawn to the allure of the underworld and the complexities of human nature, then "Toronto Noir" is the perfect read for you.

Prepare to be captivated by these gripping stories that will leave you questioning the boundaries between good and evil, and the true nature of the city you thought you knew.
