

You Throw Like a Girl: The Inspiring Story of a Female Softball Star

Deanna Cremeans was just a young girl when she first heard the words, "You throw like a girl." It was a common insult, but it stung nonetheless. Deanna loved softball, and she knew she could throw just as well as any boy.

But as Deanna grew older, she began to realize that there were many people who didn't believe that girls could play sports as well as boys. She was told that she was too slow, too weak, and too small. But Deanna refused to give up on her dream.

She worked hard, and she practiced every day. She proved to herself and to everyone else that girls can do anything that boys can do. Deanna went on to become a star softball player, and she even played in the Olympics.

In her book, You Throw Like a Girl, Deanna shares her inspiring journey from a young girl with a dream to a star softball player. This book is a must-read for anyone who loves sports, overcoming obstacles, and achieving their goals.
